Capital Campaign

The capital campaign is doing great !!!

The first step of the capital campaign is the making of pledges. If you have not participated by making a pledge, please continue in your prayer to see if God may still be calling you to do so.

The second part of the capital campaign is the fulfilling of our pledge. This is a five year process for us and it begins the first Sunday of July.

We are all in this together as a capital campaign is a promise (a pact) that we make to each other. Your promise was not to men but to each other. With this in mind, we are depending on each other.

Our capital campaign has three parts. The first is your pledges, the second is pledges form new members that come to join us and the third will consist of fundraisers. We will begin working on these other two parts as we move forward. Part of the fundraising will include me asking philanthropists for their help in particular parts of our projects in making all this happen. For this reason, I need you to read the next article on philanthropists.

OK - now as to the question on your mind, how did we do with the pledges? Your great love of God and what we are doing here to give Him glory has already been very evident to me. I do not need proof. The diocese however did and does. You gave them that proof, the proof that you believe in this endeavor and are ready to step up to the plate to do what it takes to make it happen. In fact, I believe that you very much impressed the diocese.

Melissa Dorbeck
JoAnn Brock
Jack Bowkus
Chuck Campanella

Hal Schneider
Harry Coppennoll Sr.
Timothy McLin
Dean Lind
Rhoda Greenhoe

You did this, and you made me look good to the diocese - thank you.

Oh ya - your love and generosity has led us to a collective pledge of $101,000. This generosity will allow us to complete more of the project sooner rather than doing things in stages over several years.

This is a great start to our capital campaign and to meeting all the financial needs of making our new home come to life.

Philanthropists

Do you know anyone of financial substance? There are many people who have substantial incomes and who need/want write-offs. But like most people, they do not want to give to just any charity. They want their hard earned money to go to something good and that they believe in.

These people just need to be asked. With that in mind, if you are aware of anyone who might be willing to help us, please let me know. I am more than willing to approach them. I have already had 4 people suggested to me to approach. I will be contact them soon.
