Proposal 3

There is information on the back table for you today.

There are also yard signs to be taken home in the coat room.

Confirmations

Great news. I talked with Bishop Boyea at the Convocation. As you know, he is not able/willing to do the confirmations according to the traditional form that we prefer.

The Institute of Christ the King in Detroit and the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter in South Bend are orders and so not limited by Pope Francis' restrictions placed on Diocesan parishes and communities like ours.

Bishop Boyea has agreed to let us go to one of these order run parishes for our confirmations.

More information to come...

Does the Pope ever ask Himself

“What was I thinking?”

Many of you have already heard that Pope Francis appointed a pro abortion woman to the Pontifical Academy for Life.

WHAT!!! - That is what I said too.

Here we are in Michigan fighting tooth and nail for every “no” vote we can get on Proposal 3 and he pulls this stunt? I am certainly asking, “What was he thinking?”

I do not care how good of an economist she is, She has no business working for the church. Now, this is not true just for her, it is true for many. Granted, we are not looking for perfection, but they at least have to believe and uphold the faith and moral teachings of the church.

As to the moral life of individuals who work for the church, there are a few must haves:

- Pro life - 100%
- Properly ordered sexuality (heterosexual)
- Not a pedophile (age appropriate)
- Either man or woman - no other options and must be the one they were genetically and physically created to be

- Not a socialist
- Not part of any secret organizations or organizations against church teaching (e.g. KKK, Masons, Hemlock Society...)
- More concerned about the sins against man than the “sins against nature”
- Not part of or support the Great Reset
- Believe that marriage is only between one man and one woman
- If catholic and married, be married in the church
- Not be part of “social justice” where they care more about virtue signaling than getting to the real issues that affect mankind. Especially concerning, are the issues that are actually about doing or allowing evil (e.g. BLM, ESG, ERA, LGBTQ+, climate change, Illegal immigration, ...)

As to Prop 3, the Pope did us a grave disservice. I see no hope of winning that fight now. The message he sent is loud and clear. Pro-life is not a real issue. Not like climate change, and Pachamama worship at least.

My advice... Stay faithful to God. Like St. Joan of Arc said - Let God be served first! Or like St. Thomas More said, I am the King’s good servant, but God’s first. As Catholics, we are indeed called to obedience and to work and cooperate with our local bishop. But when they are about the destruction of the church or ask us to do what we know to be morally wrong, we cannot follow them. We instead pray for them and do what we can to do the right before God within the limitations of the world that are imposed upon us.

Oh Lord! God, Mighty God! Have mercy on us as the chasm within your Bride, the Church is every widening.

Much Love. Fr. Robideau
